RE: Amended Cash Deposit Instructions for laminated woven sacks from the People's Republic of China (PRC) (A-570-916)

1. On 03/30/2016, the United States Court of International Trade (CIT) sustained the results of redetermination issued by Commerce pursuant to the CIT's remand involving the final determination under section 129 of the Uruguay Round Agreements Act for laminated woven sacks from the PRC (Slip Op. 16-30, court no. 12-00301). As a result, the cash deposit rate for certain producers and/or exporters was amended (81 FR 23457, 04/21/2016).

2. For shipments of laminated woven sacks from the PRC entered, or withdrawn from warehouse, for consumption on or after 04/11/2016, CBP shall require a cash deposit equal to the margins for the exporter and exporter/producer combination listed below:

4. These cash deposit requirements provided in paragraphs 2 and 3 shall remain in effect until further notice. Do not liquidate any entries of merchandise included in this administrative review until assessment instructions are issued.

5. In Commerce's redetermination, Commerce stated that unless the applicable cash deposit rates have been superseded by cash deposit rates calculated in an intervening administrative review of the antidumping duty order on laminated woven sacks from the PRC, we would instruct CBP to collect cash deposits at the rates revised as part of that redetermination. Accordingly, because the companies listed below were found ineligible for a separate rate in an intervening segment and continue to be included in the PRC-wide entity, CBP shall continue to collect cash deposits for shipments of subject merchandise from these exporter/producer combinations, entered or withdrawn from warehouse, for consumption, on or after April 11, 2016, in accordance with the cash deposit instructions for the PRC-wide entity in paragraphs 2 and 3 above.
